

National and International Conferences in your Institution

ANURAGAM an integral part, offshoot of Kalaignaan Pathipagam , established in the year 1955 by as Shri. Masilamani Ganapathy. The prime focus is to uplift the society by publishing books, conducting seminars and contest for school, college teachers and students, organising conferences, giving training, and cultural exchange programmes.

It has published more than 4000 titles of books and jointly organised 25 International Conferences with 13 Conferences in abroad with various universities. And have released more than 1000 volumes of Conference Proceedings comprising more than 4500 Research Papers.

It has taken more than 1000 delegates from India to attend International Conferences in abroad. And we have invited more than 400 delegates from abroad to India.

We have also arranged Faculty Development Programme and MoU with Foreign Universities for Indian Colleges to sign with them in the month of April 2019 in Hotel Residency Towers Chennai, Tamilnadu.

As many have been asking to organize national and international conferences in their institution we would like to assist you in organising conferences in your premises. Those who are all interested please email us to anuragam78@gmail.com
